

Rev. John T. Pawlikowski, O.S.M., Ph.D.

Professor of Social Ethics at the Catholic Theological Union, part of the ecumenical cluster of theological schools at the University of Chicago; Director of the Catholic-Jewish Studies Program in Catholic Theological Union's Cardinal Joseph Bernardin Center.

A Priest of the Servite Order

His books include:

- The Challenge of the Holocaust for Christian Theology (New York, 1978; revised edition: New York, ADL, 1982);
- Christ in the Light of the Christian-Jewish Dialogue (Eugene, OR: Wipf & Stock Publishers, 2001) [An examination of how Christology has been impacted by new research generated within the Christian-Jewish dialogue since Vatican II's Nostra Aetate];
- Jesus and the Theology of Israel (recently published in a Russian edition);
- Biblical and Theological Reflections on the Challenge of Peace;
- Justice in the Marketplace: CTU's Pastoral Commentary on the Bishops' Letter on the Economy;
- editor with Richard N. Fragomeni of The Ecological Challenge: Ethical, Liturgical and Spiritual Responses (Collegeville, MN, The Liturgical Press);
- editor with Hayim Goren Perelmuter of Reinterpreting Revelation and Tradition: Jews and Christians in Conversation (Franklin, WI, Sheed & Ward) [An overview of theological themes under discussion in the current Christian-Jewish dialogue];
- Good and Evil after Auschwitz;
- editor with Judith H. Banki of Ethics in the Shadow of the Holocaust: Christian and Jewish Perspectives (Franklin, WI: Sheed & Ward, 2001) [Papers from two conferences held at the Catholic Theological Union. The first focuses on the 1998 Vatican document on the Holocaust] – Introduction and Table of content <http://www.jcrelations.net/en/?item=1426>;
- editor with Eugene J. Korn of Two Faiths, One Covenant? Jewish And Christian Identity In The Presence Of The Other (Lanham, MD: Rowman & Littlefield) [An overview on how Christians and Jews have understood the interrelationship of the two faith traditions over the centuries with a particular focus on how covenant has been described in this context].

Contributor to numerous edited volumes on issues related to the Holocaust and to Social Ethics.

Contributor to numerous journals including THEOLOGICAL STUDIES, THEOLOGY DIGEST, CATHOLIC INTERNATIONAL, WORSHIP, ENCOUNTER, SIDIC, ECUMENISM, THE ECUMENIST, THEOLOGOGISCHE QUARTALISCHRIFT, MOMENT, ISTINA, CROSS CURRENTS, COMMONWEAL, U.S. CATHOLIC, THE CHRISTIAN CENTURY, AMERICA, JOURNAL OF ECUMENICAL STUDIES, JOURNAL OF HOLOCAUST AND GENOCIDE STUDIES, BRIDGES, THE POLISH REVIEW, POLIN, and NEW THEOLOGY REVIEW.

Served for seven years as Editor of NEW THEOLOGY REVIEW; serves on the editorial boards of the JOURNAL OF ECUMENICAL STUDIES, JOURNAL OF HOLOCAUST AND GENOCIDE STUDIES, EXPLORATIONS, SHOFAR: AN INTER-DISCIPLINARY JOURNAL OF JEWISH STUDIES, and BRIDGES: AN INTERDISCIPLINARY JOURNAL.

His writings have been translated into Russian, French, Polish, German, Italian, Spanish, Czech, Dutch and Hungarian.

President of the International Council of Christians & Jews (ICCJ) and its Abrahamic Form.

Member of the Catholic Theological Society, the American Academy of Religion, The Society of Christian Ethics (past board member), the Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences (National Advisory Council), the Polish American Historical Association, the Ethics Working Group of the World Conservation Union, and the Association of University Leaders for a Sustainable Future, the American Polish Advisory Council, the Society of Jewish Ethics and the Board of Religions for Peace USA.

Past Co-Chair (and currently board member and honorary co-chair) of the National Polish American-Jewish American Council; Vice President, American Association for Polish-Jewish Studies

Appointed by President Carter to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council in 1980; reappointed to three successive terms by Presidents Bush and Clinton. Currently serves on the Council's Strategic Planning Committee, its Committee on Conscience, the Academic Committee and chairs its Church Relations Committee. Served for several years on the Council's Executive Committee and on the key Committees responsible for the construction of the museum building as well as the development of its permanent exhibition.

Selected by President Bush as a member of the White House delegation representing the President at the 50th Anniversary International Commemoration at the Babi Yar Massacre site, Kiev, Ukraine, October 1991.

Member of the Advisory Committee on Catholic-Jewish Relations of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops; Past Member, Christian-Jewish Relations Committee of the National Council of Churches (USA). Member of the Faiths in the World Committee of the National Association of Diocesan Ecumenical Officers and of the Interreligious Coordinating Council in Israel. Member of the Board of Directors of the Parliament of the Worlds Religions and of the National Advisor Council of the United States Committee for the World Conference of Religions for Peace (WCRP).

Has traveled extensively throughout Europe and the Middle East, as well as in Latin America, Asia, Micronesia, the Caribbean and Africa.

Member for four years of the Presbyterian/Reformed-Catholic Bilateral Dialogue.

1986 recipient of "The Righteous Among the Nations Award" from the Holocaust Museum in Detroit; the 1989 Raoul Wallenberg Humanitarian Award from The American Jewish Committee in 1993; the "Person of the Year" Award from the Polish Council of Christians and Jews (Warsaw), 1994; The NOSTRA AETATE Award from the Archdiocese of Chicago 1995; the Officers' Cross of Merit for Distinguished Service to the Polish Nation, Government of Poland, 1995; the Eternal Flame Award from St. Leo University and the American Jewish Committee, 1999; "The Heart to Heart" Award from the Polish National Church, Lublin, Poland, 2000; Named an "Illustrious Person and Honorary Citizen" of Montevideo by the City Council of Montevideo, Uruguay, 2001; Honorary Doctorate, Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, 2001.

Frequent appearances on radio and television in the U.S. (including ABC, CBS, PBS and NPR, FOX NEWS NETWORK and National Public Radio), as well as in Canada, Australia, South Africa, Israel and on Vatican Radio.

Principal Theological consultant for the U.S. Catholic Bishops' Statement on Energy.

Member, Vatican Delegation, International Jewish-Catholic Dialogues, Baltimore (1992), Jerusalem (1994), and New York (2001).

Participant/Speaker in Christian/Jewish/Muslim Dialogues in Spain (1986 & 2000); Rome (1986), Indiana University (1987), Detroit (1987), Chicago (1992) and Haifa, Israel (1993).

Involved with the Corporate Responsibility Movement since its inception; Helped to establish regional Catholic corporate responsibility centers throughout the USA.

Member of the Board of Directors of the Annual Scholars' Conference on Holocaust, Genocide and the Church Struggle.

Delegate to the Millenium Summit of the World's Religious and Spiritual Leaders convened at the United Nations by Secretary General Kofi Annan in August 2000.

Participant/Speaker, World Economic Forum, 2002 and 2005.

Member of the Chicago Workers' Rights Board.

Chair, National Advisory Council, National Catholic Center for Holocaust Education, Seton Hill College.

Member, National Advisory Council, FACING HISTORY AND OURSELVES.

Holder of two fellowships at Cambridge University, Fall 2004.

Currently at work on a book on the non-Jewish victims of the Nazis.